NATIONAL CAREER DEVELOPMENT DAY

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 2005

9:00AM-2:30PM

FACULTY LOUNGE

This event is designed to highlight the importance of life-long career development and the personal empowerment of all people. Activities have been planned to help examine lives, careers, and the alternatives to increase everyone's personal success and happiness. Workshops will be on-going and available throughout the day. We invite students, faculty, and staff to participate.

Student Activities:

Career Motivational Keynote Speaker: Edward Anthony Colozzi, Ed.D.

"Making Choices: Taking the Mystery Out Of Career Decisions—For the Rest of Your Life!"

Dr. Colozzi will share a practical, hands-on strategy for making wise and informed career and life decisions useful for college, career and life choices. PowerPoint and handouts will be included, and small dyads will allow participants to experience some enjoyable activities during the presentation. Bring your pad and pencils!

Career Development Panel includes: Fullerton Mayor Shawn Nelson, Dr. Jerome Hunter, Chancellor of NOCCCD, Dr. Edward Colozzi, owner of Career Development and Counseling Services, Judy Crog, Office Manager, St. Jude Heritage.

Career Planning Workshops: Workshops hosted by several departments of Fullerton College. Workshops in Technology and the Workplace, Eureka's California Career Information System, and Image in the Workplace, and others.

Faculty/Staff Activities:

Student Success Workshop: "The Community College Opportunity: Creating Collaborative Career Development to Promote Student Learning and Student Success" by Edward Anthony Colozzi, Ed.D. Dr. Colozzi will outline some basic challenges facing community college faculty and career services providers regarding career development and preparing students for school-to-school and school-to-work transitions. The presentation includes PowerPoint and handouts and an opportunity for enjoyable small group activities during the presentation.
